

PRESS RELEASE

European Student Conference EUROMATH & EUROSCIENCE 2019

The Cyprus Mathematical Society and the Thales Foundation, with the cooperation of the European Mathematical Society and the Mathematical Society of South Eastern Europe, are organizing the 11th European Student Conference EUROMATH & EUROSCIENCE, from 13 to 17 of March 2019, at the Aliathon Village Hotel in Paphos.

The Conference is for students of age 9-18 who can participate with individual or group presentations, prepare articles for publication and participate in at least 8 competitions. Teachers and academics also participate by offering workshops to students and by participating in the jury panels of the various competitions during the conference.

In the EUROMATH & EUROSCIENCE 2018 Conference, which was organized in Krakow, Poland, there were 350 students and teachers from 23 countries. In the EUROMATH & EUROSCIENCE 2019, which will be held in Cyprus, there will be a participation of more than 400 students and teachers from 24 countries, with 150 presentations in Maths and Science by students and 23 workshops by teachers and experts.

In addition to the presentations and workshops, additional activities during the Conference include 8 different competitions for the students such as the MATHFactor Europe and SCIENCE-Factor Europe, the MATHeatre Europe, the SCIENCE-Theater Europe, the MATH-Presentation, the SCIENCE-Presentation for the best individual and group presentation, and the Mathematics and Science Poster Design Competition.

The Conference is organized under the National Auspices of the Minister of Education and Culture of Cyprus, Dr Kostas Champiaouris, and under the Municipal Auspices of the Mayor of Paphos, Mr Phedon Phedonos.

For more information please visit the websites www.euromath.org and www.euroscience.info.